

ESTATE AND TRUST ADMINISTRATION

Minneapolis law firm Henson Efron's estate and trust attorneys represent the estate personal representative, beneficiary or trustee from beginning to end. Our attorneys assist with all aspects of administration, including the gathering of asset information, valuation of the property, securing and protecting of assets, payment of all valid debts and distribution of the estate together with the preparation of all necessary court documents. Regardless of the form of administration required, we work with our clients to provide smart solutions and make the process as efficient as possible.
