

HENSON EFRON

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LITIGATION

Henson Efron attorneys have successfully represented both plaintiffs and defendants across all major areas of intellectual property and technology law. Our attorneys have achieved favorable litigation outcomes for clients on claims related to patents, trademarks, trade dress, copyright, unfair competition, counterfeiting, false advertising, misappropriation of trade secrets and the internet. Our attorneys represent clients of all sizes in this highly complex area of law, offering cost effective and practical solutions to intellectual property legal issues. We know enforcement and defense of intellectual property assets is critical for any size business, not just the Fortune 500.
