TAX CONTROVERSY AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Sometimes even the wisest foresight and attention to detail still results in disputes with taxing authorities. Frequently, businesses and individuals find themselves in disputes over income and sales taxes, estate and gift taxes, and generation skipping taxes. Henson & Efron tax attorneys can assist when fiduciary returns become involved in controversies over valuations, deductible debts, claims and expenses, or an employer finds itself in employment tax disputes.

From the early stages of an audit to final resolution of a controversy or dispute, Henson & Efron tax attorneys vigorously defend a client's interests. Whether it's negotiating a settlement with a taxing authority, protecting assets from unwarranted collection actions, or advocating in front of a court, tribunal or tax agencies, our tax attorneys have the experience and training to represent our client's interests.
